Introduction to the Alliance:

The American University of Afghanistan, in partnership with Education for Humanity at Arizona State University, has established an alliance of organizations and groups engaged in safeguarding and expanding access to quality education for women and girls in Afghanistan. Alliance members will endeavor to amplify access, quality, and scope of online and face-to-face educational opportunities for women and girls in a context of severe restrictions, depletion of resources, and economic hardship. As part of the Alliance for the Education of Women in Afghanistan, international and national members are creating a community of practice that will provide measurable changes and time-bound solutions to women and girls' access to quality education in Afghanistan. The Alliance envisions a future where every Afghan woman and girl has the opportunity to access and receive quality education, empowering them to thrive and contribute to a more equitable and prosperous society.
