

Policy Design Studio & Internship

Spring Semester

Global Education Office
School of Politics and Global Studies

Gain hands-on experiences as an intern at an organization of interest to you. Options include the White House, Congress, courts, government agencies, lobbying firms, advocacy groups, media outlets, think tanks and non-profit organizations. Research solutions to real-world foreign policy issues in a weekly seminar taught by a former U.S. Ambassador, visit government agencies and historical sites and participate in networking events.
